Trends Collection Premium Range

This catalogue showcases selected corporate gift ideas from TRENDS COLLECTION in conjunction with our global partners XD DESIGN and SWISS PEAK. Corporate gifts are a valuable means of strengthening relationships with both customers and employees. A perfectly timed gift is one of the best ways of conveying the very important message that a business relationship really matters to your company.

Verbal or written communication is soon forgotten but carefully chosen branded gifts have a proven record when it comes to expressing your appreciation to customers or motivating and thanking employees. Gifts generate reciprocal appreciation and goodwill and act as a constant reminder of a close business relationship.

When selecting a corporate gift it is important to ensure that both the quality and perceived value are appropriate for the purpose intended. It's the thought that counts and a gift does not need to be excessively expensive but conversely should not be perceived as inexpensive or poor quality.

Trends Collection, XD Design and Swiss Peak are market leading brands with a reputation for producing elegant, yet affordable corporate gifts which exceed expectations. Careful consideration is given to the design, product quality, branding and presentation of the gifts you select. All you have to do is deliver them and enjoy the appreciation and goodwill they generate.
